

CODE OF CONDUCT

Camp Philosophy and Behavioral Expectations

Every Camper has the right to a happy and safe experience at Breakaway Hoops Camps. All Breakaway Hoops camps focus on developing the basketball skills of every camper and addressing the collective needs of the group. Our goal is to help each camper develop new skills and a greater appreciation of his/her capabilities. We hope to provide a community setting in which campers will have the ability and confidence to gain new skill sets and meet new friends. Every experience is a learning experience and it is the responsibility of the coaches to provide a well-rounded program for all children. We aspire to create a safe and stimulating environment for all campers where sensitivity, respect for others, and cooperation are valued.

Code of Conduct

The code of conduct is intended to be a guide for general behavior for the Breakaway Hoops community and includes the following expectations:

1. Each person is respected and valued.
2. Each person has a responsibility to help make camp a better place
3. Each person is expected to choose appropriate behavior and language and encourage others to do so.
4. Each person is expected to think about the results of one's actions and how they impact others.
5. Each person is expected to solve disagreements by talking, listening, and compromising.

Consequences for Inappropriate Behavior

If a counselor is unable to resolve a conflict through discussions, redirections, and reviewed expectations, staff will proceed with the following steps:

1. The Counselor gives an official warning, which includes a clear explanation of the concern and suggestions for alternative behaviors that should be used in the future. This may include a time-out.
2. The Camp Director talks with the camper about expectations and communicates with parent(s)/guardian explaining the concern.
3. A conference with the camper, parent(s)/guardian, Camp Director will be arranged to discuss a plan of action for resolution of the concern. The could include suspension from camp for a period of time. No refunds will be made for any time a camper is suspended due to inappropriate behavior.

If the situation is judged by the administration to be very serious, the above steps may be waived and a parent/guardian may be asked to pick up the child from camp and the camper may be asked not to return to camp for a designated period of time.

Please read and discuss this code of conduct form with your child. Sign this form and return it to camp via upload file to complete your registration.
